READING COMPREHENSION

The text below is about the German team before the last World Cup. Based on it, answer in English the questions 1,2 and 3 that follow.

World Cup 2006

The stage is set: The world's greatest event returns to Europe, whose traditional dominance is fast being eroded.

BY MARK STARR

None of the 32 countries that qualified to play in next month's World Cup can boast of an especially easy path there. But the one that received an automatic berth - host nation Germany - seemed to suffer the most controversy and consternation. Its youthful team has played uninspired football, most notably in a 4-1 thrashing by Italy early this year, and rookie manager Jürgen Klinsmann has taken a beating too. Klinsmann, star of three German Cup teams in the 90's, has been vilified for his non-traditional methods, sins compounded by his insistence on living in southern California. When he flew home to America right after the loss to Italy, no less a persona than Franz Beckenbauer, Germany's greatest football icon, pleaded for him to spend more time with his team. Instead, critics had to settle for whatever solace could be found in a 4-1 victory over an American "B" squad. Klinsmann termed it an important win, permitting the team to proceed with preparations "in a much quieter atmosphere."

But football experts, both inside and outside Germany, believe that any calm may be of the before-the-storm variety. Starting June 9, Germany will be the center of the sporting universe. To the eyes of most experts, however, the Germans appear at best a long shot to finish on top.

Tokyo Trains

Although they are usually crowded, Japanese _____ trains are very good. They always live and arrive _____ on time. On a London train, you usually see _____ everybody reading a newspaper. On Tokyo trains, _____ everybody in a seat seems to be asleep. Some _____ Japanese makes a train journey of two hours to go _____
for work, so they do their sleeping on the train. _____
But they always wake up when they arrive at _____ his station. I wish we had these trains in our _____ country. The last time I have been to Tokyo, I _____ went from Osaka in great comfort. The trains _____ which run every half-hour between the two _____ cities are the most fast trains in the world. _____
They are fast and comfortable. Only those who _____ have reserved seats can to travel on the train. _____ Tokyo has so much surprises that none of _____
they can really surprise me now. _____
